

A career in pathology

Go for a career that delivers results

What is pathology?

Pathology is an integral part of the Health Industry. It is the collection and testing of biological products such as blood, urine and other fluids and tissue samples.

Who will I work with?

You'll get the opportunity to interact with medical professionals such as:

Doctors

Pathologists

Where will I work?

Community Health Centres

Hospitals

Research Institutes

Government

Private Industries

So how do I get there?

A Certificate III in Pathology Collection from Health Industry Training will equip you with the skills and knowledge to work in all areas across pathology collection.

Health Industry Training

Nationally Recognised Qualifications

Flexible Study Options

Fee Assistance Programs

Talk to an advisor 1300 381 415

Inspiring students to achieve!